

Brian E. Padden
President Consumer Brands Group
The Sherwin-Williams Company

Brian E. Padden is the President of the Consumer Brands Group, representing the premiere DIY paint and stain brands and the over 10,000 places where products are sold. In his 27 years with Sherwin-Williams, Mr. Padden has held roles of increasing importance that involve leading and driving the business.

Mr. Padden has been with the Consumer Brands Group since 1996 with a wide variety of leadership roles including Brand and Product Management, Business Unit Director for Building Materials, Vice President of Sales for Industrial and Specialty Auto, Vice President of Sales for National Accounts, Vice President and General Manager for EMEA as well as Senior Vice President and General Manager for CBG International.

Mr. Padden holds a bachelor's degree from Canisius College and an MBA from John Carroll University.